Comments from Palo Alto Mayor, Liz Kniss

Liz Kniss

Our Mayor talked for about 30 minutes about trying to find ways that the residents of Palo Alto can somehow come together and begin to tackle the difficult and conflicting issues we all face as a city.

She said that there is a lot of frustration and disagreement as to how we can solve our current issues and come together for the greater good. As the Mayor of Palo Alto, she is dedicated to finding a way to bridge the different opinions on traffic, growth, housing, etc. that effect our daily lives.

There was a brief question and answer session with the Mayor while the votes were counted.
